High Life Ski Club Guidelines

Trip Payments: All participants must have their checks deposited and cleared before the trip commences. Final payments shall be due three months prior to the trip date. An exception can be made in case of unforeseen emergencies.

Last minute participants: Last minute replacement participants shall pay the total late fees as stated on trip contracts or airline regulations (airline name changes, late penalties or other etc...) Checks shall be delivered by mail promptly or hand delivered to the trip leader as time permits.

Participant Requests: (Rooming partners, meals or other) Will be honored as best as possible. All changes will be final and made by the trip leader.

Trip Insurance: If a person has trip insurance or does not, and is canceling the trip, then they will and/or their replacement will make contact for the new replacement cost of the trip, as per trip leader. The person replacing the original person, will pay the price that is negotiated with the person holding the trip insurance. The new check must be cleared with the bank for the replacement person to go on the HLSC trip without exception.
